VOL XVII. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, JULY 23, 1898. No. 8.

DR. D. H. WILLIAMS.

COL. DANIEL H. WILLIAMS.

This distinguished surgeon, formerly surgeon-in-chief of the Freedmen's Hospital, arrived in the city this week. He received a great ovation. He called upon Commissioner J. W. Ross, Secretary Bliss and others who assured him that he had their confidence and respect. Several receptions and dinners were tendered him by admiring surgeons, physicians and friends. Col. Williams is the first colored man in the United States to be appointed examining surgeon for the army.

THEY SAY.

Be what you seem to be and nothing more.

Don't be alarmed because the country is safe.

It is now Major Sylvester.

He will be a true friend to the colored man.

The River Queen is the fastest boat on the Potomac.

Be truthful and loyal to your friends.

Santiago has fallen.

Judge Taylor occupied the bench Monday.

There will be some changes in the Freedmen's Hospital.

Dr. Curtis will be made to understand that he will be made to know a thing or two.

False friendship sometimes is the result of a weak mind.

What is the world coming to any way?

Don't tell all you know.

It is the false man who does false deeds.

Nothing is better than a quiet life.

You will live longer.

Don't be worried over troubles.

If you know what you are talking about express yourself.

The colored American believes in supporting one candidate.

Messrs. E. E. Cooper and Robt. H. Terrell made speeches on last Saturday for Mr. Gould.

It has been but a short time since he wrote an article in support of Mr. McDonald.

"All this world is a stage."

Speak the truth always it will pay.

The war is not over yet.

Don't be too hasty in expressing your opinion.

The kedtergarten teachers have been appointed.

What encouragement was there for the post graduates.

Miss Lucy Moten will not resign.

She will find that it is easier to resign than it wit will be to retain the Normal school.

Some people wil make promises to break them.

You can find out a false-hearted man after death.

His misdeeds will be shown up.

Speak kindly of your friends.

The civil service law will be changed soon.

Col. Daniel H. Williams is in town and will make things hot for his enemies.

The BEE predicted the appointment of Major Sylvester.

Don't be too confident in anything.

The Capital Saving Bank is one of the most reliable institutions in the country.

The Freedmen's Hospital will have a turning over.

You can very seldom find your friend when you are in trouble.

It is the bad man who does the bad deeds.

Judge Kimball has gone on a vacation.

No one regrets it nor will any one weep.

President Rankin will not consent to the wholesale changes in the hospital.

The President of the United States is considering the appointment of a colored colonel.

What becomes of a man's conscience after he betrays a friend.

Every time a man thinks he can come to Congress he is mistaken.

Speak gently and kindly to your friends.

Don't you forget what your duty is at home.

What is the world coming to?

Our Normal school shoud be reorganized.

Some men make promises but very seldom keep them.

Caution!—There have recently been issued several cheap reprints of the 1847 edition of Webster's Unabridged Dictionary, an edition long since superannuated. These books are given various names,—"Webster's Unabridged," "The Great Webster's Dictionary," "Webster's Big Dictionary," "Webster's Encyclopedic Dictionary," etc., etc.
Many announcements concerning them are very misleading, as the body of each, from A to Z, is 44 years old, and printed from cheap plates made by photographing the old pages.

MAJOR SYLVESTER.

In the appointment of Richard Sylvester as Chief of Police, the Commissioners have shown marked wisdom and justice. In the first place, Mr. Sylvester is the logical successor to Major Moore, for the reason that as the chief clerk to the major, he has become thoroughly familiar with the routine as well as the personel of the Police department and is therefore, more than any other man qualified to take up the administration of the police department where Major Moore left off, without producing unfavorable friction. In the next place, Mr. Sylvester is a gentleman of culture and refinement, without prejudice, while he possesses large business and executive capacity. The peculiar constitution of Washington public, where there are over 80,000 colored people, more or less disposed, antagonized and maltreated on account of color, makes it a matter of supreme satisfaction that the Police department will be conducted with absolute justice to all without regard to race, color or previous condition of servitude. While as a whole the Police department under Maj. Moore, consisted of men who possessed a sense of honor and duty which precluded tyranny and race discrimination, yet there are numerous policemen who should be instructed that recordscan not be made simply according to the number of colored arrests made without regard to the character of the offense or the welfare of the community.

In hundreds of cases which come before the Police Court, there has been no evidence of moral turpitude, yet the colored people are branded and a stigma fixed which affects their future prosperity. Innocent amusement is natural and proper among all young people and when such amusement is not in violating a police regulation, it ought to be encouraged rather than condemned. In many cases where simple amusement was being indulged in by colored boys, policemen have made arrests on the ground that there was distubance of the peace while just across the street perhaps there were white boys engaged in the very same amusement, yet were allowed to continue. If Mr. Sylvester will only insist upon a strict performance of duty and enjoin absolute impartiality in his department, the Police Court record would not be such as to reflect discredit upon the colored people. In this respect as well as in all others where injustice is apparent we are confident that Mr. Sylvester will make needed reforms. Unless all signs fail, we have now a model Chief of Police and we felicitate him and the public upon his appointment.

The moment the war is over, we can then see where the colored brother stands.

It is not the man who does the most barking that we should always fear. The silent man is the most dangerous man.

The meeting of republican league clubs at Omaha, was quite a success.

A GRIEVOUS MISTAKE.

The failure of Congress to pass the bill authorizing the enlistment of 25,000 colored troops was a grievous mistake. In the first place, it was an indication of the unwisdom of allowing race prejudice to enter into the consideration of the proper defenses of the nation. President McKinley recommended the measure and it must have been endorsed by his military and other wise and influential advisors and therefore must have been a wise measure. In the next place, the military necessities would seem to have justified the wisdom of the President's course. However we may seek to disguise it, the fact remains that the troops who are now in Cuba are totally unfitted to combat the climate to which they are so utterly unaccustomed.

It is more than probable that the causalities have resulted from want of acclimatization and the rumor is ripe that even now yellow fever has begun its deadly work. Had the country seen the wisdom of the President's recommendation much less loss of life would have been the result for the reason that there are thousands of colored people who reside in the Gulf States, who are practically immuned from the attacks of yellow fever and who could have stood the climate quite as well as any Cuban or acclimated Spaniard. Moreover the wisdom of the President would have been emphasized in more than in respect to success in arms. It would have been an expression of the gradual welding together of the whole composite American people and a rebuke to those lower instincts which more become Spaniards than Americans. Beside it would have been a great political stroke and one which would allay apprehension on the part of colored people touching the sincerity of republicans. It may be that the measure was defeated by democrats, but unless we are improperly advised, this is not the case. There are grounds for belief that not all of the influential republicans favor colored enlistments. These men are not of the stripe of the President and are doing all they can to disaffect the great masses of colored people who now have faith in the friendship of Mr. McKinley. The proper thing for the President to do is to make the call and thus disarm his specious adversaries and make their vauntings false. What we shall see, we shall see.

NOT ALIKE.

The controversy which is going the rounds of the press relative to whether Prof. Miller is a willing coadjutor of Prof. Washington, ought to stop at once. The two gentlemen are pursuing entirely different lines of thought and action. If the public have come to the conclusion that they are both pandering to the sentiment which opposes race advancement—so well and good. The people cannot all be deceived all the time. There will be an awakening, and the colored man or men who have truly sold their birthright for plunder or a "mess of pottage," had better stand from under.

OPPOSED TO MR. GOULD.

In another column of this paper can be found an article from Editor Cooper of the Colored American, in favor of the re-election of Capt. McDonald. Editor Cooper is opposed to any man who is opposed to Capt. McDonald. A man who would support two candidates, in the estimation of Editor Cooper, is a scoundrel. He has no respect for a man who declares in favor of one man today and another tomorrow. Such a man is a traitor, says Editor Cooper.

We agree with our contemporary in everything it said about Capt. McDonald.

Some of Judge Kimball's decisions are harder to desect than a mosquito's head.

NORMAL ADMISSIONS.

Dr. George H. Richardson, school trustee of the 11th school division, is to be congratulated and thanked for the manly fight he made for the admission of the deserving High School graduates to the Normal School. The trustees should investigate the rejection of those graduates to the Normal School and see whose fault it is. The pupils as well as the parents feel grateful to Dr. Richardson.

INDEPENDENT NEGROES.

The Republicans of Virginia have formed a strong organization, their purpose being to place a colored man's ticket in every Congressional District in the State.

Lawyer Thomas L. Jones will be nominated for Congress to represent the 4th Congressional District. Mr. Jones is an eloquent and logical speaker and no doubt he will be elected when nominated.

Notwithstanding the disposition on the part of the white press not to give our colored troops their hard earned meed of praise, the European papers and officials know where to give credit when credit is due. It is a sad commentary on American justice and patriotism when American heroes can receive deserved commendation only from foreigners. When will the American white man learn to be fair?

The Congressional Committee is doing a rushing business just now, and the colored brother is politely invited to "walk in."

Dewey seems to be the only one who seems to be making any substantial headway. Perhaps it is because he is so far from home that his head cannot be swelled by undeserved laudation.

COLORED TROOPS.

From the The New York Globe.

The colored man, barred from so many avenues of making a living in civil life, owing to popular prejudice, finds he is discriminated against in the making up of the army, and he protests against such treatment. In the regular army of 27,000 there are only 2,000 of his color. In the summoning of 200,000 more to crush Spain the colored men have considerable less than 2,000 The quota of the southern States, something like 50,000, was made up white men, as the colored were not accepted.

Of the 72,000,000 inhabitants of the republic 9,000,000 are colored. If the latter had their proportion in the call for troops they would have contributed 25,000. There are especial reasons why colored men should be freely enlisted in these allotments. They are accustomed to hot weather in the south and in a summer campaign in Cuba would be able to stand the climate better than the white men of the north. They are at home under a tropical sky and proof against the miasma and fevers that will work havoc with our soldiers before cool weather comes in October. The black makes an excellent soldier, as the four regiments among the regulars attest. The men are large and powerful in build, skillful shooters and brave to a fault. The colored marksman, with a gaping wound in his thigh at La Quasina, when reminded of it, coolly replied: "That's all right; that's been there some time!" and kept right on shooting at the Spaniards. Such heroism proclaims better than words the valor of our American men of color.

Now there is a bill before Congress directing the President to provide auxiliary volunteers for the occupation and defense of any islands that may come under our control to be composed exclusively of colored men. This will give those now discriminated against, a chance to prove their patriotism. They should be allowed to enroll until 25,000 are mustered in Such a formidable body would bed more than a match for a like number of Spaniards—indeed, one colored warrior is worth two of the bull-fighter variety.

We believe the petition to Congress will be granted and by fall a well-disciplined and brave army of blacks will be a part of fighting forces against the contemptible Castilian.

This is taken from the New York Globe: expresses the merits of the colored people while it outlines a just and equitable policy for the government. Considering the uniform fidelity of the colored people to all that is American, it seems hard that the irenious sentiment which prevails against the acknowledgement of their rights should receive the sanction of the President. If race prejudice and hate were wiped from administrative methods, the country would be better off and the influence upon other governments would be more salitary. The best argument in favor of right is the fact of being right.

CAPT. JOHN M. McDONALD.

THE COLORED VOTE UNITED—GOULD DENOUNCED—PAID NEGROES DENOUNCED.

Glen Echo, Md., July 16, 1898,—There was a Gould meeting held here last Saturday evening in Jones House near Cabin John's Bridge.. E. E. Cooper, was presiding officer. There were about 35 colored republicans present most of them were Capt McDonald supporters. When The BEE man arrived, a white man was extolling the virtues of Mr. Gould and after he had concluded he asked the question if any one wanted to ask him any questions. Mr. Chase, who is supporting Capt. McDonald, read two affidavits, from two colored republicans in Mr. Gould's district, who swore that Mr. Gould asserted in '96, during the McKinley Campaign, that the republican party would not be classed as a negro party, if the negroes were let alone, or words to that effect. That Mr. Gould knew of number of young democrats who would join the party.

The white man who was asked to answer the affidavits could not do so. Mr. F. E. Cooper, who has recently come to this city from Indiana, declared that Mr. Chase was sent to break up the meeting. Mr. Chase in reply to Mr. Cooper's charge, said that he (Cooper) had been paid by Capt. McDonald and to his surprise he had gone over to Gould; who it is claimed, has also paid him. Cooper in an excited manner declared that he was paid 50 cents a line by Mr. McDonald. Just what I wanted you to admit, said Mr. Chase, that makes it worse. Cooper's attention was called to his own article in the interest of Capt. McDonald and also the article in the interest of Mr Gould. Supporting both men for the same office.

In the McDonald article he tells why Capt. McDonald should be returned to Congress and in another article he tells why Gould should be elected.

When this charge was made against Editor Cooper, his guns were silenced for a while and Editor Chase was allowed to proceed until Gould himself interrupted the speaker. Mr. Chase would not yield until he had concluded and distributing several copies of The BEE among those whom Gould thought intend to vote for him. Mr. Gould took the platform and denounced The BEE for its complimentary remarks about him, but it had no effect on the voters.

Mr. Gould was explaining fully an hour. Mr. Robert H. Terrell of Washington was introduced and declared that he was opposed to every man who was opposed to Mr. Gould. His speech was as much in favor of Capt. McDonald as it was in favor of Mr Gould. Mr. Terrell admitted that the republican party had not done all of its duty toward the negro, but with such a man as Mr. Gould in Congress, the negres of Maryland would get their rights. The meeting adjourned and when The BEE polled the votes Capt. McDonald had four-fifths.

WHAT MAKES A GENTLEMAN.

THE YOUNG MAN SHOULD BE GUIDED BY HIS OWN BEST INSTINCT

"Common-sense rules in dress and manners, the same as in any phase of our lives, and this our young men should learn and understand," writes Edward Bok of "What Makes a Gentleman," in the July Ladies Home Journal. "A man's manners are not exterior: they eminates from within, from himself. Experience and observation are the only teachers he can seek and use. Etiquette books are useless to him. A young man's progress and favor in the eyes of others does not depend upon his being ostentatiously 'correct' in manner, movement and speech. His strongest and most lasting hold upon the respect and confidence of people comes from something deeper. He must not be boorish, nor slovenly, nor heedless of the feeling of others. It is his duty to carry himself well according to his best instincts, and not by rules laid down in etiquette books. So with a young man's dress. At twenty we do not expect our young men to devote so much time to their clothes that they shall be correctly dressed upon every occasion. Such useless knowledge, is at that time of life, acquired at the expense of far more important matters, The taste of good dressing, and its knowledge, so far as it is necessary, comes to all of us as we progress. The right sort of a young man dresses in in the neatest and best manner he can, and as well as his his income permits. That is always good dressing. To overdress one's station in the world is always poor taste and invariably makes a bad impression. I never yet saw a young man who either hired or borrowed an evening suit for a special occasion who did not loudly proclaim the self evident fact. When a young man wears clothes beyond his means he invariably shows it, and he never fails to make a fool of himself. This rule is invariable. It is not what a man wears, but how he wears it, that tells the story."

THE CONGRESSIONAL SITUATION.

From the Frederick, (Md.,) Guide,

The disinclination of Mr. Benjamin A. Richmond, of Alleghany County to enter the contest, is we think from a conscious feeling of right belonging to the Hon. John McDonald to succeed himself. Captain McDonald may not possess the veneering of an orator, but his level-headedness in casting his vote for right and justice, his attitude on all public questions, the life he had the patriotism to risk for his country in its hour of need, leaves no donbt in the minds of some of his constituents that he can be trusted for a second term in Congress and that there are more things than eratic oratory that enable a man's public life to scour before the people's gaze. Now the Hon. John McDonald is honorably entitled to renomination and we do not know the temper of the people if he does not get their support. He is one of the few men, who when the battles of his country were fought to a successful finish, went into retired life, "a farmer" until our people of the Sixth Congressional District recognized his sterling qualities called him forth to represent them by a majority of nearly three thousand votes. In battle he was valiant for his country and in peace he honored his profession. In Congress attentive to his duties and the people's approval in the sixth he will suerely get.

The few republicans of Frederick city or county who have been in the city of Baltimore "discussing politics" who have been unsparing in their criticisms of Judge Motter's friends in dragging him into a political contest, are very inconsistent and nonsensical.

Judge Motter has the inalienable right of every citizen to exercise his right of choice of all the candidates, and will no doubt do so when he thinks proper. Up to this time these criticisms are entirely unwarranted and very much out of place.

A COLORED SOLDIER'S WIDOW.

From the Jacksonville, Fla., Evangelist —

The Washington Bee is to be commended for the manly way in which it has stood by Mrs. Brown, who has been wrongly and unjustly dismissed from the position of Matron of the Freedmen's Hospital of Washington. We are surprised at the action of Dr. Curtis in this matter. It seems that but few of our leading men can be relied upon to treat their own women right when a white woman is involved in the case—they will side with the white woman, and against the Negro woman every time, it matters not how just the cause of the colored woman may be. We trust that The Bee may keep at this case until Mrs. Brown gets justice. We must give white men and Negro fawners upon white women to understand that they cannot trample upon the rights of Negro women with impunity.

The attention of the citizens Washington, societies, churches and other organizations, is called to the opening of Round Bay, the Palasades of the Chesapeake Bay. Mr. Garnet Wilkinson of the Washington High school caused much anxiety to many of, his friends, when his name did not appear on the list of successful candidates for the Normal school. Out of justice to this young man, who recently carried off the honors in the Oratorical Contest at the 19th Street Baptist church, he did not enter the examination as he had decided to go to college, where he can prepare himself for other exigencies of life besides teaching. Mr Wilkinson has one of the brightest minds of his age, and promises to add much to the race which has the honor of claiming him.

OUR SCHOOL EXHIBITS.

Lack of space last week prevented any mention of work outside of the industrial and the art work of Mr. Hunster, at the recent exhibition of the public schools of the District, which did so much credit to those who were in charge of its arrangements.

The handling of the various subjects by the pupils of the different grades showed thought, research and that the newest methods had been employed by the teachers. Nearly every school was represented by a chart prepared by the pupils while the composition work was bound. The former with other divices were neatly and artistically arranged about a frame work erected for that purpose, while the books containing the composition work were arranged according to grades upon low shelves by a bevy of ladies under the direction of Supt. G. F. T. Cook and Supervising Principal E. W. Brown.

As The Bee correspondent passed before the long file of well executed work, his attention was particularly drawn to that of a few which bespoke the great capabilities of the teachers they represented. The composition work of Misses Shadd, Cook, Gray, Perry, E. A. Chase, Jannie Payne, F. Bruce, L. Washington, G. Smith, L. S. Chase, Mattie E. Bruce, I. I: Kinner, K. H. Slade, H. H. Hebbron, A. Thompson, C. T. Chase, E. Patterson, M. Liggons, L. Waring was exceptionally fine.

In the Primary department which has been successfully directed by Miss Merritt, we noted particularly the work of Misses C. Martin, E R. Clarke, I. I. Hawkins, Maggie Taylor, Eva Grimshaw, Mabel Ruby, Alice R Jackson, M. Brooks, I. I. Wormley, C. Smith, and Mr. B. Washington, as showing much proficiency in thought, composition and penmanship.

The productions of the United States, formed a chart arranged by the pupils of Miss Bowen's school.

We noted several pretty language lessons from Misses Alice Jackson and Emma George's pupils, written with pen and ink by first grade pupils. The penmanship is remakable, surpassing that of some of the third grade pupils represented.

Misses Moten, Hand, Thompson, Smith and Crusor had many divices on exhibition which will help the observing teacher.

Variety, quantity and quality, characterized the Misses Chase work. Perhaps no other work at the exhibit attracted more attention than that of Miss Eva A Chase, all of which was tastefully illustrated by the pupils in artistic shades and tints. Upon the chart, containing the history and symbolism of the Flag are compositions from each pupil, illustrated by flags of every conceivable kind in water tints. They showed that her pupils are well acquainted with "Old Glory"

The chart on leaf vermin and insects by Missess Whipper and Shepperson was good.

The one representing the continents by Miss Howard did her much credit.

Miss Emma Clarke showed much skill as an artist in the arrangement of her Floral chart.

Miss D E. Smith's chart showed the defferent stages of the silk worm by ladies. The whole was placed in a large glass top case.

ROYAL BLUE TRAINS.
Between Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

In September last, railway officials from London were sent to America, to get ideas on the railway passenger service of the leading lines in this country, and in their official report, which was printed in the London Times in January, it was stated that the "Royal Blue Line" series of magnificent passenger trains, running between New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, lead the world for quick and exquisite train service.

The "Royal Blue Line" service consists of nine elegant passenger trains a day in each direction between the cities named above. They are the finest and fastest trains in the world. Their equipment was built especially for the service by the Pullman Company, and includes every modern convenience known for the comfort of passengers. The trains are vestibuled from end to end, and hauled by the strongest and fastest locomotives in the United States.

The exquisite day coaches of these trains are worthy of special note. They are beautifully upholstered, each containing a washroom and smoking compartment.

The parlor cars are the most palatial ever built, being fully seventy-three feet long. In addition to this service, three new parlor cars were added in April, and are the first of this kind ever run; they are richly upholstered and ornamented throughout in most beautiful designs. A ladies' retiring-room is provided in one end of the car. This room, which is six feet square, is furnished with a beautiful dresser with large mirror and a number of drawers. On each side of it are upholstered corner seats. In another corner is a bookcase and stationary washstand. The room was designed for especial comfort of ladies, who have always claimed men had the best of it when travelling. The usual smoking apartment, however, is at the opposite end of the car.

The dining cars are operated by the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company, and especial attention is given to the menu. Every delicacy is served in season, and the service is unsurpassed.

In addition to the already perfect service of "Royal Blue Trains" mentioned above, there will be put into service May 15 a "Royal Limited" train, which will leave New York at 1.00 P. M., making the run to Washington in FIVE hours. Returning, the "Royal Limited will leave Washington at 3.00 P. M., arriving New York at 8.10 P M. The "Royal Blue Line" will then boast of three trains which make this extraordinary fast time between Washington and New York, which has never been attained by any other line. The "Royal Blue Trains" between Baltimore and Washington make the run in FORTY-FIVE MINUTES—the fastest regular service ever attained between the two cities.

The terminal at New York City is the most convenient for all points in Greater New York. Passengers can land at South Ferry (Whitehall Terminal), where, under the same roof, connection is made with the elevated lines of the second, Third, Sixth and Ninth Avenues, and the Broadway, Lexington and Columbus Avenue Cables. All the Brooklyn Ferries also start from this point, and by taking Emma: You have been complimented for your excellent work. Strict discipline is what is neccessary.

Estelle: A young lady should be well supplied with escorts. Never depend on the company of one male.

Ollo: Your letter was too indiscreet. It is in bad taste to use vulgar terms or slang; always display good manners.

Lulie: It was Fred Douglass who first offered a son to Major Andrews. History of the negro soldiers will enlighten you.

Etta: Old coals will kindle some times. Fond recollections of the past generally recalls to one's mind loving events.

E. P. Do not expose your ignorance to young men. They often take advantage of it.

M. P. Dressing is an art and few girls seem to appreciate the fact. You should always dress with taste.

D. T. Nothing is more distasteful than to see a crowd of girls assemble gossiping about frivilous matters. Useful and beneficial topics should always occupy the mind of a young girl.

S. T. Too much familiarity often leads to disagreements and unpleasantness. Never allow yourself to get too familiar with any one.

B. M. It is generally the rule. One is very seldom sought after until some thing is needed. Some girls are deceitful.

I. T. Society should be polished and polite "A loud laugh portrays a vacant mind."

Ola: You should have resented the insult at once. A pretentious man will pretend that he has great interest in your welfare.

Essie: Take my advice and never go on a common excursion. I am opposed to girls going on excursions unaccompanied by parents.

N. B. You did the right thing to refuse wines offered you. The manner was vulgar as well as the place.

C. W. Such a person who pretends to so many should not be trusted.

E. S. It makes no difference whether you were engaged to him or not. Circumstances have separated you. The frienpship that once existed should not be tolerated, if you have accepted an engagement ring from another. Give him to understand in plain English that his company is not acceptable.

D. H. If you girls will permit long courtship, it is your fault. I have a poor opinion of a young lady who would ask for a present from a gentleman to whom she is engaged.

E. Never place youself under obligations to any one. It is better to be poor than to place yourself in such a position.

Jeanette: My opinion is that your manners were rather rude. Sedateness and polite manners will win all the time.

Minnie: You should always attend to business as you are directed. Never talk your business to other people.

Marie: You can be pleasant always, but be postive in your business relations.

It is quite easy for one to misjudge your meaning.

L. E. S. Your selection should be appreciated, I am sure. You should remember however, that an intelligent girl should not marry below her station, nor should she be intellectually a man's inferior.

Y. M. One's house affairs should not be exposed to the neighborhood.

Talkative girls are not to be trusted with secrets. My advice is to confide in but a few.

M. B. C. Never attempt to look upon one with contempt. You never know when you will be compelled to go to him for aid and succor.

E. O. I would advise you to be honest in your dealings with your associates. Nothing commends a young woman more than honesty. You must be a positive character. When a young man loses confidence in you, it would be better to find another companion. A young lady that commands the respect of any man is a jewel.

Flirtation: In reply to your letter of recent date, I would suggest that you discontinue such practice. A few men have confidence in a young girl who obtains her acquaintance by flirtation No refined and cultured young lady will carry on flirtation with any man no matter who he may be. I have but little faith in office holders. A majority of them spend their money before it is drawn.

Anna: It is in bad taste to allow a young man to meet you at a place of amusement. He should certainly take one evening off to escort you to the place of amusement.

Punch cards: No young lady should take punch cards to solicit money. It is vulgar and no lady of refinement and education would be guilty of such impropriety, money for churches should be collected differently. The lady will either be insulted or her intentions may be misconstrued.

FREE-MASONRY IN THE PHILIPPINES.

From Collier's Weekly.

The Eiglo Futuro ascribes the native revolution in the Philippines to Freemasonry. The statement has been quaint, but is has the merit of being exact. At Cravite there is—or was—a lodge known as the Primera Luz—the First Light. Affliated branches are encountable throughout the archipelago. In all there are nearly two hundred. Each branch is a revolutionary center. In earlier days the fragmentary state in which the tribes subsised precluded any idea of national unity. The solidarity which was lacking Freemasonry brought. To the natives the rites represented a form of sorcery fresher and even more mysterious ancestral superstitions. The enthrallment of unknown, attractive to all, but irresistable to primitive natures, captured the most influential among them at once. They found in the brotherhood dignities which they craved, ceremonies which appealed, and therewith unimagined oppotunities to rebel. In her three hundred years of dominion Spain failed to touch the native heart. There is one of her oversights. Where she has not massacred, she has alienated. She repels and never endears. As a consequence, when it was found that Freemasonry, in addition to other charms, offered opportunities a tablo-turning, the latter were not suffered to go to waste. Once introduced--and introduced through processes too complex for recital here—it spread, and in spreading, developed into a vast association known today as the Katipuan, which in some respects presents a curious resemblence to the Ku-Klux-Klan, and of which the watchward is Hasta la muete, and the significiance Hatred of Spain.
